

6516208256.txt

To The FCC:

I would urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160. It is refreshing to have something new coming to us for a change. The present broadcasters tend to fight anything new and therefore create a monopoly preventing anything new from being presented to the public. How about making them compete with new concepts and ideas for a change.

Thank you.